MEDICINAL.

A RAGE FOR LIFE.

Spurring his jaded horse to renewed efforts when the animal should be refreshed with proper food and rest, is about as sensible as prescribing nerve tonics, alcoholic compounds, coca mixtures and cocktails which only spur on the already weakened nervous system. Neither does it do to put the nerves to sleep with narcotics. When you feel worn-out, broken down, jaded, and feel the effects of brain tire as well as nerve weakness, sleeplessness and fatigue, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a tonic which will do you lasting good, build you up, increase your appetite and strength and improve the condition of the blood. When the blood is impoverished the nerves feel the effect. Nervousness in nine cases out of ten is the "cry of the starved nerves for food." Feed the nerves on rich blood and all nervous manifestations will cease.

"I have been suffering for about eight years," writes Mrs. H. Pierce, of Millington, Ky. "I have had several doctors to treat me for female weakness and others for stomach trouble, but received no relief. When I wrote you for advice I was hardly able to work, and you advised me what to do. I took nine bottles, five of Golden Medical Discovery, four of 'Favorite Prescription,' also two vials of the 'Pellets.' Dr. Pierce's medicines will do all that you claim for them."

To gain knowledge of the people's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 1008 pages. Send 21 cents in stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address: Dr. R. V. Pierce, 665 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Divorce Suit Recalled.

The suicide of Samuel B. Green, of Stony Ford, in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, Tuesday, has revived the story of the Green divorce scandal and a series of sensational suits which stirred two counties up the State four years ago. Mr. Green was the son of a wealthy Buffalo lawyer. He studied law, but never practiced his profession. Ten years ago he moved to Monticello, where he married Miss Jennie L. Neven, daughter of former Senator Thornton Neven. About five years after their marriage Mrs. Green began divorce proceedings against her husband, naming a servant as co-respondent. She could not prove her charges and lost the suit. Thereupon Mr. Green sued for divorce and named the Rev. Dr. David T. Howell, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John, Monticello, as co-respondent. The testimony offered in this action was of such remarkable character that Bishop Potter deposed Mr. Howell from the priesthood and the clergyman's wife readily obtained a divorce from him.

This suit created much bitter feeling in Monticello, as many members of Mr. Howell's church went on the stand and testified in his behalf. Immediately after Mr. Green obtained his decree the clergyman married Mrs. Green. Mr. Howell and his bride then moved to Newark, N. J., where the former pastor began the practice of law.

Mr. Green moved to Stony Ford, Orange county, and for a time lived with his uncle, Justice William Bull. A few months later he married his cousin, Miss Lizzie Bull, and built a handsome residence in Stony Ford. Mr. Green had inherited a large fortune from his father and lived the life of a gentleman farmer. He was fifty years old. Before ending his life Tuesday Mr. Green called up his sister in Orange county on the telephone, but he spoke so incoherently that she could not make out what he said. Ebenezer Bull, jr., brother-in-law of Mr. Green, went to New York yesterday and took possession of the body. He has no idea why Mr. Green killed himself, and a careful examination of the dead man's effects has offered no solution for the mystery.

Married in a Tree Top.

Near Red Rock, Pa., lived Miss Emma Swanner and her accepted suitor, Charles Bangs. Recently they went to Great Bend to attend the wedding of one of their friends and quarreled. When it came time to go home, Rev. Mr. Hunter, of Gray's Corners, joined them. In a field adjoining the road was a ferocious Texas steer, the property of Farmer Osterhaut. At the farther end of the field there is a set of bars, and the trio reached the opposite side of the exit ignorant of their impending danger, a second or so ahead of the steer. Bangs gave the cry of alarm and ran for some trees, a few feet ahead, closely followed by Miss Swanner and the preacher. Bangs shinned up one and Miss Swanner proved her agility by climbing another, assisted by the preacher, who gave her a lift before he sought safety in still another tree. The infuriated animal ran around and around the trees, never stopping. Thinking this an excellent time to reconcile the pair, the minister began. His work was done, however, almost before he had begun. The couple desired to get married then and there, thinking they were to meet a tragic death, and the minister married them. The Texas steer bellowed the wedding march. When he had concluded Farmer Osterhaut and his son drove up with a load of furniture from Binghamton. An explanation was hastily spoken, the bride and bridegroom and minister were transferred to the wagon, and the joyful party drove to Mr. Bangs' home, where there was merry-making.

Female Incendiary.

The mystery surrounding the recent destructive fires on the Homestead property, near Belair, Md., owned by William W. Bradford, was solved yesterday, when Gussie Heaton, an insane girl of 19 years, living in a tenhouse on the property, admitted that she had set fire to the buildings.

The burning of the cottage three weeks ago and the large stone mansion. Tuesday, aroused suspicion among the members of the Bradford family and the authorities at Berlin to such an extent that a rigid investigation was ordered. The Heaton girl was put under surveillance, and her actions have been closely watched.

Yesterday morning the girl was seen to arise from her bed and deliberately set fire to a blanket in her room. When she found that she had been caught she broke down and admitted that she had fired the cottage and mansion house and wanted to burn the other buildings on the property as she had a great mania to see fires.

The girl is the daughter of Thomas Heaton, who went to Homestead from near Pylesville about two years ago. For the past year Gussie has been employed as a housegirl by James Deeran who occupied the cottage which was burned a short time ago.

A Starting Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first and has not had an attack in 14 months. Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons."

HAIR GROW

Average growth 1 1/4 in. per month for twenty consecutive months.

By permission we herewith reproduce photograph of Miss Sarah MacComb, a lady who has lived in Chicago all her life and is well known in the city, especially on the South Side.

Her hair before she commenced the use of Danderine would not reach below her waist, while now it touches the floor when she stands erect. This remarkable growth is the result of using Danderine, the grandest of all hair and scalp tonics, regularly as a dressing.

It Gave Her Hair New Life and will do the same for you. If you give it a fair trial, Danderine puts new life and vigor in both the hair and scalp. It makes the hair soft, silky, and there seems to be no limit to the growth it will produce. There is no other that can be compared to it, as it is founded on new ideas altogether.

SHE IS WILLING TO SWEAR TO IT.

By request of Miss MacComb we reproduce the following letter:

KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:—I am writing to you many inquiries regarding the hair, that you are now running showing my picture, that I am sending you this letter for the benefit of the public that you may reproduce it, and I will state under oath if you so desire that I used Danderine for twenty consecutive months and the average growth of my hair was one and one-fourth inches per month, making a total of twenty-four inches in twenty months. You are at liberty to use this letter underneath my picture, and by so doing will save me the trouble of answering the large number of inquiries which I am receiving daily. Sincerely, Miss Sarah MacComb, Chicago, Feb. 9, 1904.

Whoooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

When the Sap Rises

Weak lungs should be careful. Coughs and colds are dangerous then. One Minute Cough Cure cures coughs and colds and gives strength to the lungs. Mrs. G. E. Fenner, of Marion, Ind., says: "I suffered with a cough until I ran down in weight from 148 to 122 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by all druggists.
